The background of the poster is a light grey gradient. Two large balloons, one gold and one silver, are positioned on the left and right sides respectively. A thin gold ribbon swirls around the balloons and the text. At the bottom, there is a festive arrangement of party items including star-shaped balloons (one silver, one gold), two disco balls, champagne glasses filled with bubbly, a bottle of champagne, and a single silver high-heeled shoe. The floor is covered with gold and silver confetti.
